Dear Charlotte,

Thanks for sending me copies of two of your Lewiston Journal features. I enjoyed both of them. Last weekend I got around to reading a mass of Elderberry mail received after I began editing Penobscot Times. You can imagine that two new papers and publishers in less than one year has kept me pretty busy! Imagine my delight in reading one of the letter suggesting the writer didn't want Penobscot, that the only reason she had subscribed to Elderberry was to read the French column. Of course, the letter is lost in the scfamble again but I recall she had a French name. Didn't we think most of your readers were English?

Keep well and enjoy the whitiness of winter.

Fondely ,

Dee
